

Book	Policy Manual
Section	Fall 2024 Policy Revisions
Title	Revised - TITLE IX SEX DISCRIMINATION AND SEXUAL HARASSMENT
Code	po2266
Status	Policy Committee
Legal	R.C. 3313.207/208/209, 5104 20 U.S.C. 1681 et seq., Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX) 20 U.S.C. 1400 et seq., The Individuals with Disabilities Education Improvement Act of 2004 (IDEIA) 42 U.S.C. 2000c et seq., Title IV of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 42 U.S.C. 2000d et seq. 42 U.S.C. 2000e et seq. 42 U.S.C. 1983 34 C.F.R. Part 106 OCR's Revised Sexual Harassment Guidance (2001) 20 U.S.C. 1092(F)(6)(A)(v) 34 U.S.C. 12291(a)(10) 34 U.S.C. 12291(a)(8) 34 U.S.C. 12291(a)(30)
Adopted	January 4, 2021

2266 - TITLE IX SEX DISCRIMINATION AND SEXUAL HARASSMENT

I. Purpose and Statement of Policy

A. Scope and applicability

The District is required by federal and state law to provide an academic and working environment that is free from discrimination on the basis of sex. Federal regulations require specific processes when allegations of sexual discrimination may constitute sexual harassment under Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972. This Policy outlines the policies and procedures that the District will use to address reports of conduct that constitute sex discrimination and sexual harassment as defined by Title IX and its implementing regulations ("Title IX violations"). The District does not discriminate in its education program or activities, which include admission to and employment at the District.

The District has also adopted a grievance procedure to provide the prompt and equitable resolution of student and employee complaints of Title IX violations. This procedure also describes how members of the District's community can report or file a complaint of Title IX violations, and will outline how the District will respond to these reports and formal complaints.

The District has designated ~~the following employee~~ an administrator to coordinate its efforts to comply with Title IX. ~~This individual is called the Title IX Coordinator. The Title IX Coordinator's contact information is below: The name, title, and contact information of this individual will be published annually on the School District's Web site at <https://www.swcsd.us/HarassmentIntimidationBullyingInformation.aspx>~~

~~Amber Hufford~~
~~Coordinator of Student Services~~
~~(614) 801-3000~~
~~3805 Marlane Drive~~
~~Grove City, OH 43123~~

Any person may report sex discrimination, including sexual harassment, whether or not the person reporting is the person who has been subject to the conduct that constitutes sex discrimination or sexual harassment. This could be done in person, by mail, by telephone, or by electronic mail using the contact information listed above for the Title IX Coordinator. Such a report can be made at any time (including during non-business hours) by using the telephone number, email address, or by sending mail to the office address listed above.

Please note that a report of sexual harassment does not automatically result in a formal investigation as defined in this policy. The Title IX Coordinator will work to provide supportive measures, access to resources, information about formal and informal resolution procedures, and information about filing a report with the appropriate law enforcement agency.

B. Jurisdiction

Under this Policy, the District has jurisdiction to address conduct that constitutes Title IX violations that occur within the District's educational programs or activities within the United States. For the purposes of the Policy, the District's "educational programs or activities" include locations, events, or circumstances over which the District exercises substantial control over both the responding party and the context in which the prohibited conduct occurred.

The District maintains the right to respond to conduct prohibited under this Policy that occurs on campus, at District events, regardless of where they occur, and academic, co-curricular and extra-curricular programs that occur off-campus, including those that occur outside the United States, under other provisions of its policies, procedures and/or the code of conduct.

II. Definitions

For purposes of this policy, the following definitions are applicable:

Actual knowledge: Actual Knowledge is notice of sexual harassment or allegations of sexual harassment to the District's Title IX Coordinator or any other District employee except for the respondent.

Complainant: A Complainant is defined as an individual who is alleged to be the victim of conduct that could constitute sexual harassment.

Day: A day is defined as a school day.

Formal complaint: Formal complaint is defined as a document filed by a complainant or signed by the Title IX Coordinator alleging sexual harassment against a respondent and requesting that the District investigate the allegation of sexual harassment. At the time of filing a formal complaint, a complainant must be participating in or attempting to participate in the District's education program or activity of the District with which the formal complaint is filed. A formal complaint may be filed with the Title IX Coordinator in person, by mail, or by electronic mail, by using the contact information required to be listed for the Title IX Coordinator or any additional method designated by the District. Additionally, a "document filed by a complainant" can be in the form of an electronic submission (such as by electronic mail or through an online portal provided for this purpose by the District) that contains the complainant's physical or digital signature, or otherwise indicates that the complainant is the person filing the formal complaint. In situations where the Title IX Coordinator initiates or signs a formal complaint, the Title IX Coordinator is not a complainant and must comply with the guidelines outlined in this section.

Respondent: A Respondent is defined as an individual who has been reported to be the perpetrator of conduct that could constitute sexual harassment.

Title IX Coordinator: The Title IX Coordinator is the employee, or employees, designated to coordinate the District's efforts to comply with Title IX and its regulations found in Part 106 of Title 34 of the Code of Federal Regulations. The Title IX Coordinators will designate other individuals, regardless of whether such individuals are District employees or neutral third parties, to perform the duties of investigator(s), decision-maker(s), appeal officer(s) and person(s) who facilitate informal resolutions under this Policy. No person can fill more than one of these roles on a particular matter. For instance, the investigator cannot also be the decision-maker in the same case.

III. Privacy and Confidentiality

Privacy and confidentiality have separate and distinct meanings under this Policy:

A. Privacy

The District strives to respect the privacy of both parties and other participants in the Title IX investigation process. Privacy generally means that information related to the report and investigation of alleged Title IX violations will only be shared with a limited selection of individuals whose knowledge is necessary to respond to claims of such violations. Such responses include the reviewing of reports, investigating claims, participating in investigations, reviewing appeals, and other related issues. Student education records are protected in compliance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), Revised Code Section 3319.321 and other applicable laws in Ohio.

The District must obtain written consent from a party before the District may receive any health or other treatment records. If a party provides written consent for medical or other treatment records to become part of an investigation's case file, both parties must be able to review and comment on those records if the investigation moves towards an investigative report and decision.

B. Confidentiality

The District will keep confidential the identity of any individual who has made a report or complaint of sex discrimination, including any individual who has made a report or filed a formal complaint of sexual harassment, any complainant, any individual who has been reported to be the perpetrator of sex discrimination, any respondent, and any witness, except as may be permitted by the FERPA statutes or regulations, as required by law, or to carry out the purposes of this Policy, including the conduct of any investigation, decision-making process, or judicial proceeding arising thereunder.

Confidentiality applies to certain types of information that cannot be revealed or distributed to other persons without express permission of the individual to whom the information pertains, or as otherwise permitted or required by law. Certain campus and community professionals, such as health care and mental health professionals, maintain confidential relationships in their professional capacities with patients and clients under the privilege created by Ohio law.

Limits to confidentiality include:

1. Mandatory Reporting of Child Abuse

All District employees and officials are mandatory reporters of child abuse and neglect unless otherwise excepted by law. Where an alleged Title IX violation also may constitute child abuse or neglect, employees are required to report such abuse or neglect to Children Services and/or Law Enforcement, as is required by law. The Title IX Coordinator should be informed that such a report has been made when an alleged Title IX violation is involved.

2. Ohio Felony Reporting Requirement

Under Ohio law, all individuals, excluding confidential resources, must report felonies, including sexual violence. Under Ohio Revised Code Section 2921.22, medical professionals, mental health professionals and clergy are not required to report felonies. This legal requirement means that the Title IX Coordinator must report any felony to law enforcement officials. To the extent reasonably possible, the District will communicate with the Complainant or Reporting Person in advance of any report to law enforcement. The Complainant has the choice of whether and how to participate in any subsequent criminal investigation.

3. Ohio Medical Professional Reporting Requirements

In Ohio, medical professionals have distinct legally mandated reporting responsibilities. Where a medical professional knows or has reasonable cause to believe that serious physical harm resulted from an offense of violence, the medical professional is required to make a report to law enforcement. Medical professionals must deem a patient medically stable before reporting and must communicate to the patient that the patient does not have to report and/or speak to the police. If the patient chooses not to speak to police at the time of the medical examination, the medical professional does not need to report the patient's name - only the date, general time, and general location of the incident.

4. Risk of Harm to Self or Others

Mental health professionals are required to disclose information where there is an imminent threat of harm to self (the client) or others.

IV. Making a Formal Report

At the time of filing a formal complaint, a complainant must be participating in or attempting to participate in the education program or activity of the District. A complainant may file a formal complaint by either using the District-provided electronic submission system, or by physically or digitally signing a document and filing it as authorized in person, by mail, or by email. There is no time limit or statute of limitations on a complainant's decision to file a formal complaint.

When the Title IX Coordinator believes that with or without the complainant's desire to participate in a grievance process, the allegations require an investigation, the Title IX Coordinator has the discretion to initiate a grievance process. In deciding whether to initiate the grievance process without a complainant's desire to file a formal complaint, the Title IX Coordinator will consider:

- A. Whether there is a pattern of alleged misconduct by a particular respondent; and
- B. Whether a complainant's allegations involved violence, use of weapons, or similar factors.

While reporting of all harassment by everyone is encouraged, third parties other than the Title IX Coordinator are not permitted to file formal complaints.

In situations where the Title IX Coordinator initiates or signs a formal complaint, the Title IX Coordinator is not a complainant and such an action is not an indication of bias on the Title IX Coordinator's part. When a formal complaint is signed by the Title IX Coordinator, all parties must receive notice with details of the allegations and the identities of the parties, if known.

To the extent possible, the District will investigate a complainant's formal complaint, even if the respondent's identity is unknown, as the investigation may reveal the respondent's identity.

V. Title IX Violations

A. Title IX Sexual Harassment

"Sexual harassment" within the scope of Title IX and for purposes of this Policy means conduct on the basis of sex that satisfies the definition of one or more of the following:

1. An employee of the District conditioning the provision of an aid, benefit, or service of the District on an individual's participation in unwelcome sexual conduct (employee-to-student quid pro quo);
2. Unwelcome conduct determined by a reasonable person to be so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that it effectively denies a person equal access to the District's education program or activity (hostile environment sexual harassment); or
3. Sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking.

a. Sexual Assault

The term "sexual assault" means an offense classified as a forcible or nonforcible sex offense under the uniform crime reporting system of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The term includes rape, sodomy, sexual assault with an object, fondling, incest and statutory rape.

b. Dating Violence (Clery/VAWA (34 C.F.R. 668.45))

"Dating Violence" means an act of violence committed by a person who is or has been in a romantic or intimate relationship with the complainant. The existence of such a romantic or intimate relationship is determined by the length of the relationship, the type of relationship, and the frequency of interactions between the individuals involved in the relationship.

Acts of violence may include, but are not limited to:

1. Recklessly causing bodily injury;
2. Attempts to cause bodily injury; and
3. Causing fear of immediate, physical harm through threat of force.

c. Domestic Violence

The term "domestic violence" includes felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim, by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner, by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction receiving grant monies, or by any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction.

Acts of violence may include, but are not limited to:

1. Recklessly causing bodily injury;
2. Attempts to cause bodily injury; and
3. Causing fear of immediate, physical harm through threat of force.

d. Stalking

The term "stalking" means engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to—

1. fear for his or her safety or the safety of others; or
2. suffer substantial emotional distress.

B. Retaliation

Neither the District nor any other person may intimidate, threaten, coerce, or discriminate against any individual for the purpose of interfering with any right or privilege secured by this Policy, or because the individual has made a report or complaint, assisted, or participated or refused to participate in any manner in an investigation, proceeding, or decision-making process under the Title IX regulations and/or this Policy.

Intimidation, threats, coercion, or discrimination, including charges against an individual for code of conduct violations that do not involve sex discrimination or sexual harassment, but arise out of the same facts or circumstances as a report or complaint of sex discrimination, or a report or formal complaint of sexual harassment, for the purpose of interfering with any right or privilege secured by title IX or the regulations, constitutes retaliation. Complaints alleging retaliation may be filed according to the grievance procedures for sex discrimination adopted by the District and set forth in this Policy.

The District will maintain as confidential any supportive measures provided to the complainant or respondent, to the extent that maintaining such confidentiality would not impair the ability of the District to provide the supportive measures. The Title IX Coordinator is responsible for coordinating the effective implementation of supportive measures.

The District offers supportive measures to both complainants and respondents. Upon receipt of a report of an identifiable complainant, the Title IX Coordinator will promptly contact the complainant to discuss the availability of supportive measures, consider the complainant's wishes with respect to supportive measures, inform the complainant of the availability of supportive measures with or without the filing of a formal complaint and explain to the complainant the process for filing a formal complaint. If the Title IX Coordinator does not offer supportive measures to the complainant, the Title IX Coordinator must document the reasons why such a response was not clearly unreasonable in light of the known circumstances.

Upon noticing a respondent of a report raising potential sexual harassment violations against the respondent, the Title IX Coordinator will discuss with the respondent the availability of counseling and may discuss the availability of other supportive measures discussed above, where the Title IX Coordinator deems appropriate.

Throughout any informal process, formal process, and/or appeals process, the Title IX Coordinator will continually reassess and discuss appropriate supportive measures with the parties to ensure they remain effective.

The respondent is no longer enrolled or employed by the District, or; specific circumstances prevent the District from gathering evidence sufficient to reach a determination as to the formal complaint or allegations therein.

Such a dismissal does not preclude the District from proceeding under another District conduct process.

The District will send written notice of the dismissal and the reasons for dismissal simultaneously to all parties.

C. Equitable Treatment

Complainants and respondents are eligible for Supportive Measures as defined within this Policy. The District will not impose disciplinary sanctions against a respondent pursuant to the Policy unless a determination of responsibility for sexual harassment has been made against the respondent.

The District will conduct an objective evaluation of all relevant evidence – including both evidence indicating that the respondent is responsible for the alleged policy violation (“inculpatory evidence”) and evidence indicating that the respondent is not responsible for the alleged policy violation (“exculpatory evidence”). The District will not require, allow, rely upon, evaluate, or otherwise use questions or evidence that constitute, or seek disclosure of, information protected by a legally recognized privilege (e.g., attorney client), unless the person holding such privilege has waived the privilege.

D. Bias and Conflicts of Interest

Any individual designated by the District as a Title IX Coordinator, investigator, decision-maker, or any person designated by a District to facilitate an informal resolution process, must not have a conflict of interest or bias for or against complainants or respondents generally or an individual complainant or respondent. The following will not be considered evidence of bias:

1. The Title IX Coordinator’s initiation of a formal complaint, or;
2. An individual’s decision that allegations warrant an investigation.

The District will apply an objective (whether a reasonable person would believe bias exists), common sense approach to evaluating whether a particular person serving in a Title IX role is biased, and will exercise caution not to apply generalizations that might unreasonably conclude that bias exists. An individual’s current job title, professional qualifications, past experience, identity, or sex will not alone indicate bias.

Use of trauma-informed practices will not be considered evidence of bias when such practices do not:

1. Rely on sex stereotypes;
2. Apply generalizations to allegations in specific cases;
3. Cause loss of impartiality, and;
4. Prejudge of the facts at issue.

E. Presumption of Not Responsible

There is a presumption that a respondent is not responsible for the alleged conduct until a determination regarding responsibility is made at the conclusion of the grievance process.

F. Timeframe

The District will attempt to complete most investigations within sixty (60) days. The timeframe for formal investigations will begin upon filing of a complaint and will conclude upon submittal for adjudication. Investigations may be delayed and timeframes for investigations may be extended for good cause and with written notice provided by the District to complainants and respondents including the reason for the delay or extension. Good cause may include considerations such as the absence of a party; a party's advisor or a witness; concurrent law enforcement activity; or the need for language assistance or accommodation of disabilities. Delays caused solely by administrative needs are not considered good cause. The District will attempt to accommodate the schedules of parties and witnesses; however, grievance resolution must be completed in a reasonably prompt timeframe, and must proceed to conclusion even in the absence of a party or witness.

G. Sanctions and Remedies

If it is determined that a respondent violated the Policy, the District will institute sanctions reasonably calculated to stop the conduct and prevent its recurrence. Sanctions for respondents may include anything from a warning, up to and including disciplinary expulsion or termination. The District will also provide remedies to complainants found to have been subjected to conduct which violates the Policy. Remedies could include counseling, academic accommodations, academic support, and employment accommodations.

H. Evidence

The standard of evidence under this policy for review of formal complaints against students and employees, including faculty, is preponderance of the evidence. The standard of evidence reflects the "degree of confidence" that a decision-maker has in the correctness of the factual conclusions reached. Under the preponderance of the evidence standard, the decision-maker determines that a conclusion is based on facts that are more likely true than not. Where the decision-maker determines that the evidence in a case is "equal" or "level" or "in equipoise," the preponderance of the evidence standard has not been met and results in a finding that the respondent is not responsible.

The District will apply the same standard of evidence for formal complaints against students as for formal complaints against employees, including faculty, and apply the same standard of evidence to all formal complaints of sexual harassment.

The burden of proof and the burden of gathering evidence sufficient to reach a determination regarding responsibility rest on the District and not on the parties.

The District will not access, consider, disclose, or otherwise use a party's records that are made or maintained by a physician, psychiatrist, psychologist, or other recognized professional or paraprofessional acting in the professional's or paraprofessional's capacity, or assisting in that capacity, and which are made and maintained in connection with the provision of treatment to the party, unless the District obtains that party's voluntary, written consent.

The District will provide an equal opportunity for the parties to present witnesses, including fact and expert witnesses, and other inculpatory and exculpatory evidence.

The District will not restrict the ability of either party to discuss the allegations under investigation or to gather and present relevant evidence. A party's communication with a witness or potential witness is considered part of a party's right to meaningfully participate in furthering the party's interests in the case, and not an "interference" with the investigation. However, where a party's conduct toward a witness might constitute "tampering" (for instance, by attempting to alter or prevent a witness's testimony), such conduct also is prohibited as retaliation.

The parties will have an equal opportunity to inspect and review any evidence obtained as part of the investigation that is directly related to the allegations raised in a formal complaint, including the evidence upon which the District does not intend to rely in reaching a determination regarding responsibility and inculpatory or exculpatory evidence whether obtained from a party or other source. The District will not consider or provide for inspection and review evidence which the District knows was illegally or unlawfully created or obtained. The District may impose on the parties and party advisors restrictions or require a non-disclosure agreement not to disseminate any of the evidence subject to inspection and review.

Prior to completion of the investigative report, the District will send to each party and the party's advisor, if any, the evidence subject to inspection and review in an electronic format or a hard copy, and the parties will have ten (10) days to submit a written response, which the investigator will consider prior to completion of the investigative report.

I. Emergency Removal

If, after receipt of a complaint and an individualized safety and risk assessment, the District determines that an immediate threat to the physical health or safety of any student or other individual arising from the allegations of sexual harassment justifies removal of a respondent, the District may remove the respondent on an emergency basis. A removed respondent will receive notice and an opportunity to challenge the decision immediately following the removal. Any emergency removal under this paragraph must also comply with ORC 3313.66, the IDEIA, and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, as applicable and is not considered discipline for purposes of this policy. Threats must pose more than a generalized, hypothetical, or speculative risk to health and safety for emergency removal to be appropriate. Non-student employees may be placed on administrative leave during the grievance process.

J. Notice

The District will provide to all known parties written notice, five (5) calendar days prior to an interview, of:

1. The District's grievance process;
2. Allegations of sexual harassment, including sufficient details known at the time;
3. The District's position that the respondent is presumed not responsible for the alleged conduct and that a determination regarding responsibility is made at the conclusion of the grievance process;
4. The parties right to have an advisor of their choice, who may be an attorney;
5. The parties right to inspect and review evidence;
6. The District's prohibition on knowingly making false statements or knowingly submitting false information during the grievance process;
7. The date, time, location, participants, and purpose of all decision-making processes, investigative interviews, or other meetings, and;
8. Additional allegations not included in the original notice.

K. Consolidation of Formal Complaints

The District may consolidate formal complaints as to allegations of sexual harassment against more than one respondent, or by more than one complainant against one or more respondents, or by one party against the other party, where the allegations of sexual harassment arise out of the same facts or circumstances. The same facts and circumstances means that the multiple complainants' allegations are so intertwined that their allegations directly relate to all parties.

L. Advisors

Parties will have equal opportunities to have others present during the grievance proceeding, including the opportunity to be accompanied by the advisor of their choice, who may be, but is not required to be, an attorney. The District will not limit the choice or presence of an advisor for complainant or respondent in any meeting or grievance proceeding. Advisors are required to abide by District restrictions regarding the extent to which they may participate in proceedings, and any restrictions will apply equally to both parties. If a party's advisor refuses to comply with restrictions set by the District, the District may require the party to use a different advisor.

M. Investigative Report

The District will prepare an investigative report that fairly summarizes relevant evidence and, at least ten (10) days prior to a time of determination regarding responsibility, send to each party and the party's advisor, if any, an unredacted copy of the investigative report in an electronic format or a hard copy, for their review and written response. This ten (10) day period for the parties to provide written responses runs concurrently with the ten (10) day period in Article VIII (A) for parties to provide any questions to the decision-maker. The report will not include a summary of evidence not considered to be relevant. If a party disagrees with an investigator's determination about relevance, the party may argue relevance in the written response to the investigative report.

The investigative report may include recommended findings and conclusions; however, the decision-maker will objectively evaluate relevant evidence and will not defer to recommendations made by the investigator.

The investigative report may include a credibility analysis, but such analysis cannot result in a determination regarding responsibility.

If the report involves multiple complainants, multiple respondents, or both, the District may issue a single investigative report.

VIII. Adjudication

A. Submission of Information to the Decision-Maker

The Title IX Coordinator will appoint a person to serve as decision-maker for the complaint. The decision-maker will not be the Title IX Coordinator or the investigator. The Title IX Coordinator will provide the decision-maker with the investigative report and the evidence gathered by the investigator. The decision-maker is under an obligation to objectively evaluate all relevant evidence both inculpatory and exculpatory, and must therefore independently reach a determination regarding responsibility without giving deference to the investigative report. The decision-maker has the right and responsibility to ask questions and elicit information from parties and witnesses on the decision-maker's own initiative to aid the decision-maker in obtaining relevant evidence both inculpatory and exculpatory, and the parties also have equal rights to present evidence to the decision-maker so the decision-maker has the benefit of perceiving each party's unique perspectives about the evidence. The decision-maker may extend the timelines in the adjudicatory phase upon good cause.

After the District sends the investigative report to the parties and before reaching a determination regarding responsibility, the decision-maker will afford each party the opportunity to submit written, relevant questions that the party wants asked of any party or witness. The parties will provide any questions to the decision-maker within ten (10) days of issuance of the investigative report. This ten (10) day period runs concurrently with the ten (10) day period in Article VII (L) for the parties to provide written responses to the investigative report. After the close of the period to submit questions, the decision-maker will forward relevant questions to each party/witness. Each party/witness will have five (5) calendar days to provide the decision-maker with answers, which the decision-maker will share with the parties. The decision maker will allow for additional, limited follow-up questions from each party. Questions and evidence about the complainant's sexual predisposition or prior sexual behavior are not relevant, unless 1) it is offered to prove that someone other than the respondent committed the conduct alleged by the complainant; or 2) it concerns specific incidents of the complainant's prior sexual behavior with respect to the respondent and is offered to prove consent. The decision-maker will explain to the party proposing the questions any decision to exclude a question as not relevant.

B. Relevance

During the adjudication process only relevant questions may be asked of a party or witness. The following may be considered irrelevant:

1. Repetition of the same question;
2. Evidence that is duplicative of other evidence;
3. Information protected by a legally recognized privilege;
4. Questions and evidence about the complainant's sexual predisposition or prior sexual behavior, unless:
 - a. Such questions and evidence about the complainant's prior sexual behavior are offered to prove that someone other than the respondent committed the conduct alleged by the complainant, or;
 - b. The questions and evidence concern specific incidents of the complainant's prior sexual behavior with respect to the respondent and are offered to prove consent;
5. Any party's medical, psychological, and similar records, unless the party has given voluntary, written consent, and;

The District will not exclude relevant evidence because such relevant evidence may be unduly prejudicial, concern prior bad acts, or constitute character evidence. However, the decision-maker may objectively evaluate such evidence by analyzing whether that evidence warrants a high or low level of weight or credibility.

C. Determination Regarding Responsibility

The decision-maker will issue a written determination of responsibility. The determination of responsibility will include:

1. Identification of the allegations potentially constituting sexual harassment;

2. A description of the procedural steps taken from the receipt of the formal complaint through the determination, including any notifications to the parties, interviews with parties and witnesses, site visits and methods used to gather other evidence;
3. Findings of fact supporting the determination;
4. Conclusions regarding the application of the Policy to the facts;
5. A statement of, and rationale for, the result as to each allegation, including a determination regarding responsibility, any disciplinary sanctions the District imposes on the respondent, and whether remedies will be provided by the District to the complainant, and;
6. The District's procedures and permissible basis for the complainant and respondent to appeal.

While the determination will indicate whether remedies will be provided, the nature of such remedies will not be included within the determination. The determination will be provided to the parties simultaneously. The determination becomes final only after the time period for appeal has expired or, if a party does file an appeal, after the appeal decision has been sent to the parties.

D. Weighing Credibility

The decision-maker will evaluate all relevant evidence for weight or credibility. The degree to which any inaccuracy, inconsistency, or implausibility in a narrative provided by a party or witness should affect a determination regarding responsibility is a matter to be decided by the decision-maker. Credibility determinations are based on various factors (e.g., specific details, inherent plausibility, internal consistency, corroborative evidence). Corroborating evidence is not required.

E. Remedies

Where a determination of responsibility for sexual harassment is made, the District will provide remedies to a complainant designed to restore or preserve equal access to the District's education program or activity. Such remedies may include the same individualized services provided as supportive measures; however, remedies need not be non-disciplinary or non-punitive and need not avoid burdening the respondent. The Title IX Coordinator is responsible for effective implementation of remedies. Where the final determination has indicated that remedies will be provided, the complainant can then communicate separately with the Title IX Coordinator or his/her designee to discuss what remedies are appropriately designed to preserve or restore the complainant's equal access to education. Remedies for a complainant which do not affect the respondent must not be disclosed to the respondent. Persons found to be responsible for violations of this Policy are subject to discipline, up to and including expulsion and/or termination of employment with the District.

IX. Appeals

Complainants and respondents may appeal the decision-maker's determination regarding responsibility, or the District's dismissal of a formal complaint or any allegations therein by filing a notice of appeal with the Title IX Coordinator, including the grounds supporting the appeal, within five (5) calendar days of issuance of the determination. The District will notify the other party in writing when an appeal is filed and implement appeal procedures equally for both parties. Both parties will have a reasonable, equal opportunity to submit a written statement in support of, or challenging, the outcome. The parties must file their written statement with the District within five (5) calendar days of receipt of the notice of appeal. The appeal officer will issue a written decision describing the result of the appeal and the rationale for the result within five (5) school days of the due date for the written statements of the parties and provide the written decision simultaneously to both parties.

The grounds for appeal are:

- A. Procedural irregularity that affected the outcome of the matter;
- B. New evidence that was not reasonably available at the time the determination regarding responsibility or dismissal was made that could affect the outcome of the matter, and;
- C. The Title IX Coordinator, investigator(s), or decision-maker(s) had a conflict of interest or bias for or against complainants or respondents generally or the individual complainant or respondent that affected the outcome of the matter.

All grounds for appeal will be available to all parties.

The appeal officer will not be the same person as the decision-maker that reached the determination regarding responsibility or dismissal, the investigator, or the Title IX Coordinator.

X. Informal Resolution

The District does not require as a condition of enrollment or continuing enrollment, or employment or continuing employment, or enjoyment of any other right, the waiver of the right to an investigation and adjudication of formal complaints of sexual harassment under this Policy. Similarly, the District does not require the parties in a sexual harassment allegation to participate in an informal resolution process, as described below.

After the initiation of a formal complaint of sexual harassment, if all parties voluntarily consent in writing, the District will assist the parties in an informal resolution process. The informal resolution process will follow the procedures set forth in policy 1662.01 to the extent that such procedures are not inconsistent with this policy. An informal resolution process is available at any time prior to reaching a determination regarding responsibility in the grievance process, except in the cases of reports of sexual harassment of a student by a District employee.

Before initiating an informal process, the District will: 1) provide the parties a written notice; and 2) obtain the parties' voluntary, written consent to the informal resolution process. The written notice that the District will provide to the parties will disclose the allegations, the requirements of the informal resolution process (described below), and any consequences resulting from participating in the informal resolution process, including the records that will be maintained or could be shared. The District's informal process provides that, at any time prior to agreeing to a resolution, any party has a right to withdraw from the informal resolution process and resume the grievance process with respect to the formal complaint.

Upon initiation of the informal process, the Civil Rights Coordinator will designate an individual who will attempt to mediate the dispute through meetings with the parties. Although face-to-face mediation or a restorative justice conference may be suggested, parties will never be required to meet directly with one another as part of the informal resolution process.

When sexual harassment allegations can be resolved through informal resolution by mutual consent of the parties and on a basis that is acceptable to the Title IX Coordinator, the resolution process shall be considered finally decided and there will be no subsequent process or appeal.

XI. Record Keeping

The District will retain all records of each investigation instituted under this policy for seven (7) years. Records will include all documents, recordings, or transcripts from investigations, decision-making processes, appeals, and informal resolutions. The first date of the first record created by the District will begin the seven (7) year retention period. Records will be maintained for all investigations including investigations that have been dismissed, completed, or otherwise resolved.

The District will also maintain and publish on the District's website training materials of employees who serve as Title IX Coordinators, investigators, decision-makers, and persons who facilitate informal resolutions.

XII. Educational Programs

The Title IX Coordinator, investigators, decision-makers, and any person who facilitates an informal resolution process, will receive training on the definition of sexual harassment, the scope of the District's education program or activity, how to conduct an investigation and grievance process including decision-making processes, appeals, and informal resolution processes, and how to serve impartially, including by avoiding prejudgment of the facts at issue, conflicts of interest, and bias. This includes how to apply the definitions with respect to consent (or the absence or negation of consent) consistently, impartially, and in accordance with this policy.

Investigators will receive training on issues of relevance to create an investigative report that fairly summarizes relevant evidence.

Decision-makers will receive training on issues of relevance of questions and evidence, including when questions and evidence about the complainant's sexual predisposition or prior sexual behavior are not relevant.

Any materials used to train Title IX Coordinators, investigators, decision-makers, and any person who facilitates an informal resolution process, must not rely on sex stereotypes and must promote impartial investigations and adjudications of formal complaints of sexual harassment.

Training under this section is required on an as-needed basis. Training materials for training under this section will be made publicly available through the District's website. Published training materials will be up-to-date and reflect the latest training provided.

